The President's Corner

Our new guild year is off to a great start. A new quilt block of the month challenge has started. The name of the quilt is Bijou Wonder. How many are making this? Looking forward to seeing your first block completed on Monday.

We are planning a trip to visit the KY State Fair on Monday August 18th. The time we leave will be discussed Monday.

August 29-30 is the next Quilt Retreat. More information at the quilt meeting.

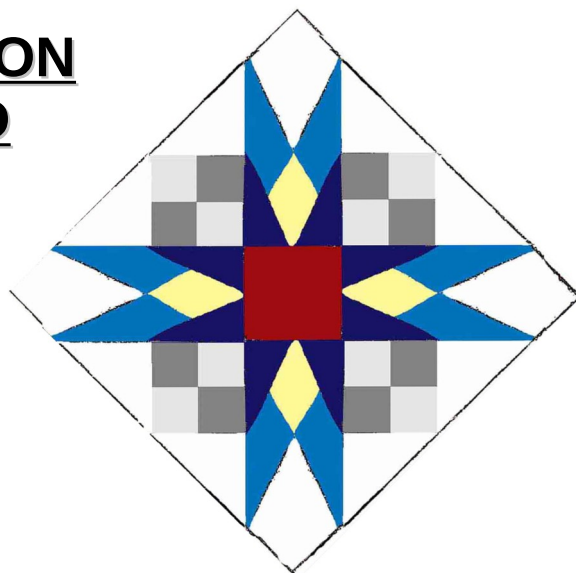

The 3rd Saturday of every month is a day for Homemakers and Quilters to come to the extension office and sew, craft or work on projects for the Bazaar in October. Take advantage of this opportunity to start or complete your projects. Plus, another day to socialize with each other!

I have heard and seen many pictures on Facebook of Anderson County Quilt Guild members participating in the KY and TN Shop Hop. Hope you collected ideas to bring back and share with the guild.

See you Monday and keep on Sewing!

Spotlight on Quilt/Fabric Website

This month's spotlight is Damjana at Apple Green Cottage. Every email has free patterns and tutorials. This past email was a pattern for a bucket hat. The instructions are easy to follow and a printable PDF. There have been patterns for totes, phone bags, gifts for Father's Day and holidays. Check them out, I'm sure you will find something you will want to make.

If you want me to spotlight a favorite quilt/fabric website, let me know and I will put it in the newsletter.

Three Fat Quarters Game

Don't forget to bring 3 Fat Quarters for our game. Since school is starting, if you have something related to school bring that. Otherwise, bring what you have.

Home, Craft and Garden Fair

The 2025 Home, Craft and Garden Fair was a success! We had 38 exhibitors, 4 more that last year.

There were 269 entries, up from last year. Check out the quilt to the left.

This quilt, made by Betty Jo Moss, won Best of Show!

Beautiful Quilt and worthy of the award! The clerks learned valuable information from the judges and are eager to share. There were many happy faces, a lot from our Quilt Guild.

Hope to see everyone enter next year to share in the fun, fellowship and just showing off your colorful, and delicious items.

Minutes from 7 July, 2025

The Quilt Guild Meeting met on 7 July at the Extension Office. The meeting was called to order at 5:30 p.m. by President Mary Lowery. There were 19 members and 1 guest present. Peggy Franklin read an inspiration.

Officers are Mary Lowery, President; Cheri Meadows, Vice President; Secretary, Betty Jo Moss; and Peggy Franklin, Treasurer. Peggy reported the bank balance is $1139.63.

OLD BUSINESS:

Mattie reported on the annual Homemakers meeting held on June 5, 2025. New officers were elected and installed by Fort Harrod President, Leoni Mundelius. They are Kay Scheffler, President and Mary Lowery, Secretary. The Living Legend of the Year Faye Green was recognized. Mary Lowery was recognized as Homemaker of the Year and June Denny was recognized as Quilter of the Year.

Mary reviewed upcoming events as listed on the agenda. KEHA is updating the state bylaws. We will review our bylaws when that is completed. Cheri is preparing a calendar with events so members will know the dates of meetings and events.

The Home, Garden and Craft Fair is on July 24. See the brochure for details.

NEW BUSINESS:

In keeping with the increase of County Dues, Mary suggested increasing Quilt Guild dues. The increase will be $25 and will include $13 Quilt Guild and $12 County dues. Peggianna made the motion to increase the dues to $25 as explained. Betty Ann made the second. Judy explained how the dues are applied. Motion passed. No dissent. A second annual quilt retreat was discussed. A planning committee will be formed in November to plan the retreat in the Spring. Members are asked for ideas. Cheri made the motion and Peggy seconded her motion to approve the budget for the coming year. There was discussion explaining the Christmas stocking project. Motion passed. No dissent.

For each month's program, members drew the name of a month. Two members per month will present the program and bring door prizes.

Pictures of the Guild members will be taken for Facebook at the August 4th meeting.

The Guild has 15 tickets for the Kentucky State Fair. We will be going on August 18.

Mary introduced the Block of the Month project. She handed out copies of instructions for the first month of the block Bijou Wonder. Betty Jo will help with questions on making the blocks.

Pat (Guest), Peggianna, Joan, Garnetta, Cheri and Betty Jo had show and tell. Garnetta demonstrated how to fold your quilt to prevent creases.

Kay S. and Kay M. received door prizes.

Meeting adjourned at 7:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Jo Moss, Secretary
